

The Legacy of Valuing People

Supporting parents who have learning difficulties

A free conference Friday May 18th

At the University of York

The Law and Management Building

Coffee at 9.30am Start 10.00am, finish at 4.30pm

- Learn about good practice
- Learn how we can work better together
- Look at opportunities for improving professional practice in the future for parents with learning difficulties

Featuring

Dr. Roger Banks - NHS England

Working Together with Parents Network - Nadine Tilbury

Linda Gough - Learning-disabled parents and their children's educational experience twitter : @yorkpeoplefirst

York Theatre Royal

Thursday 17th May

At 7.45

Mind the Gap- England's largest learning disabled theatre Co.

Fast moving, raw and eye-opening, Mia explores the truths and myths about learning disability and parenthood in today's society. Think pop culture with popcorn, science with silliness, stories with statistics. Mia challenges the often taken for granted idea of 'being a parent'.

If you book to attend the Conference on the Friday then you are entitled to see Mia on the Thursday night in the Studio at York Theatre Royal free of charge.

To book a place at the Conference please get in touch with York People First. Email: yorkpeoplefirst@talktalkbusiness.net

Address: York Eco Business Centre, Amy Johnson Way, Clifton Moor, York YO30 4AG Telephone: 01904 479315